Journal Assignment Instructions

1. This PowerPoint must be in APA format
2. Within the Lone Star site (you will need to locate how to have a chat/text session using your phone) and include this in your PowerPoint
3. Include a brief chat session with a UP librarian regarding how to access the journal data base away from the campus. Be very specific with your questions so that it is detailed enough to answer all questions you may have, include this in your PowerPoint.
4. You will be provided a journal article, and from the article that you will need to create a PF.
5. You will need to include a Hashtag and brief Public service announcement about your article
6. You will need to identify the key parts of the article that you feel are relevant within your PowerPoint. Be sure to include all relevant points that the librarians have addressed in the prior session.
7. The Power Point presentation should only be 5 – 10 minutes in length
8. Make sure that you identify all the authors are and education level.
9. What makes your article is credible and important and relevant?
10. You will need to find another article that goes along with the article you were assigned. Be sure to justify why you chose this article, what key words did you use in the search engine, and the steps you used in order to find the article.
Points Allocation

10 points: Did you attach your chat/text conversation with the librarian. Make sure your text/chat includes your name, the librarians name, time, etc.

5 points: Is your PP within the last 10 years

5 points: Does your PP identify the DOI number

5 points: Does your PP discuss the authors wrote the article and credentials

5 points: title page of PP

10 points: Did you summarize the abstract

50 points: Content of the Power Point

5: Is your reference page in the required APA format

5 points: Is your Power Point clear, concise and has a natural flow.

FYI: Make sure your Power Point is not “wordy.” Use your PowerPoint as a guide, not a crutch.